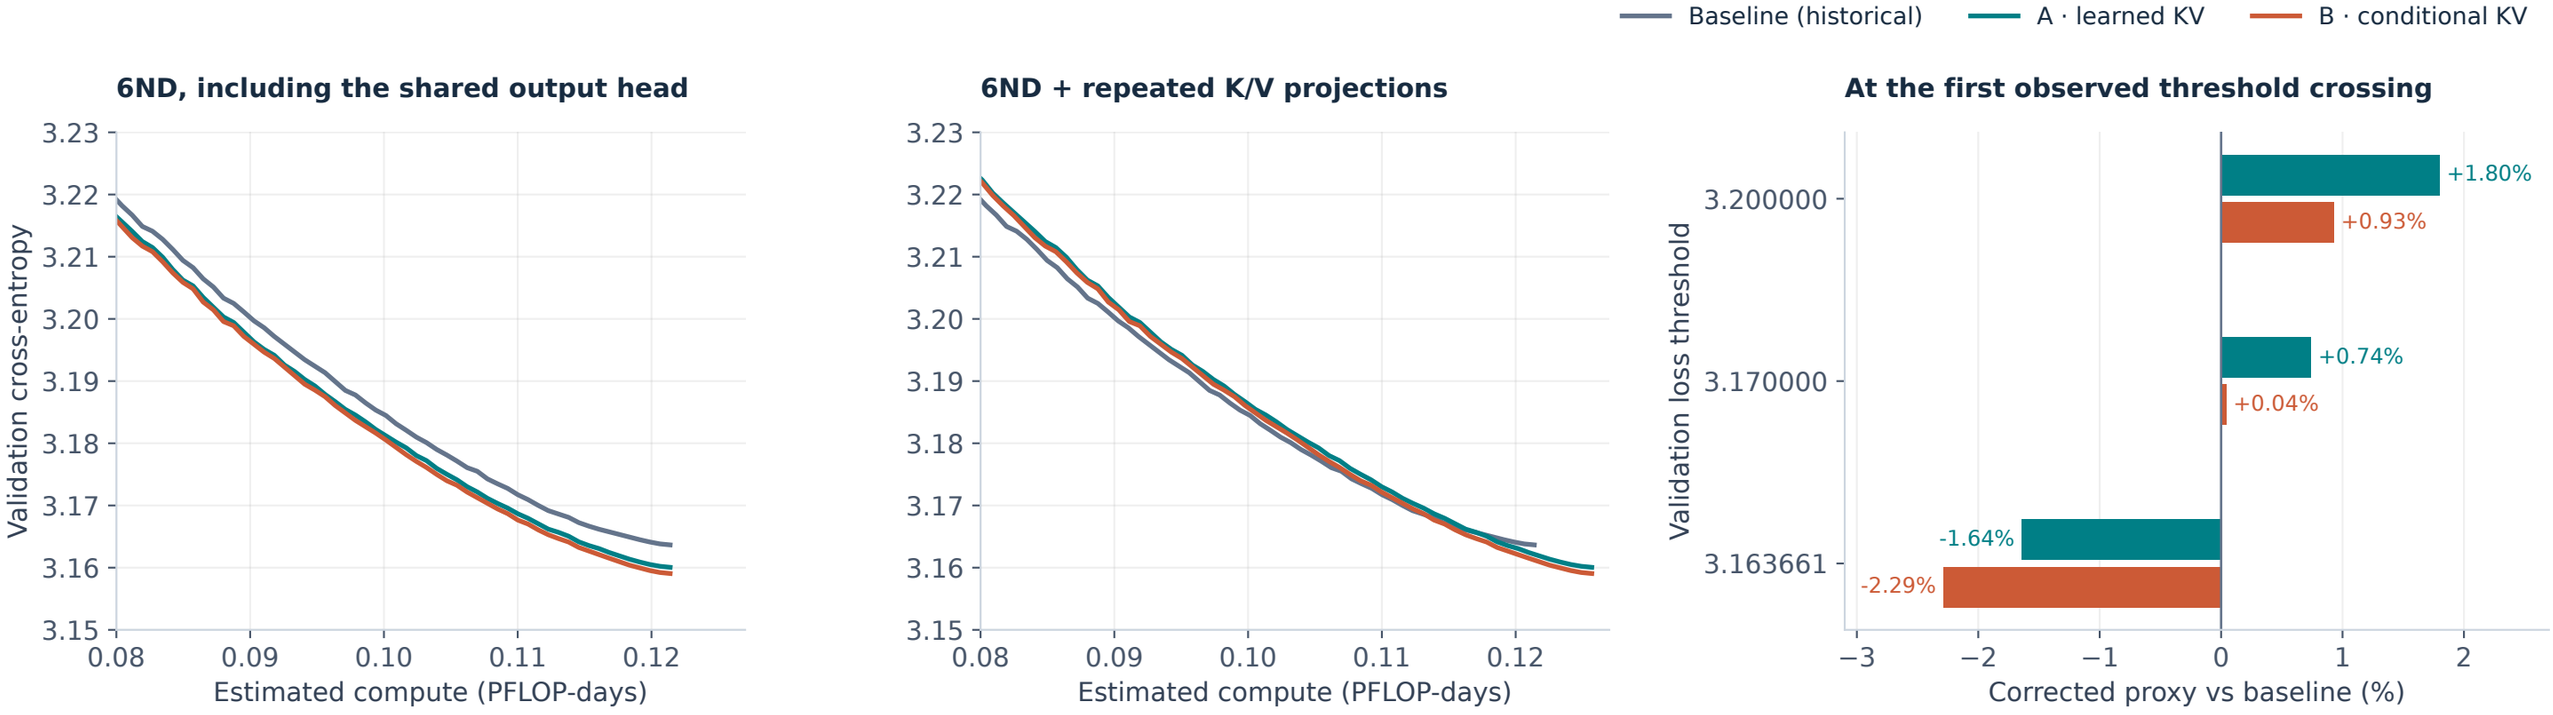
Compute–loss comparison: the accounting convention matters



6ND is a proxy, not measured device FLOPs. A/B repeat shared K/V projections six times; the correction adds five projections.
The correction excludes other non-parameter operations and activation recomputation. Threshold resolution: 250 updates.
Historical-baseline comparison; these curves do not establish a compute-efficiency advantage.